

Deer Hill Expeditions

WILD RIVERS AND NATIVE CULTURES OF THE AMERICAN SOUTHWEST

COLORADO PLATEAU TRIP

Surrounded by the breath-taking landscapes of the Colorado Plateau, we will travel together as a group, sharing meals, adventures, and laughter all along the way. This trip is offered through Deer Hill Expeditions (deerhillexpeditions.com).

- 9 days of rafting on the scenic San Juan River.
- 4 days of cultural exchange and service learning with Native American families.
- Sweat lodge ceremony at the Deer Hill Expeditions basecamp.

San Juan River Rafting

We will spend 9 days rafting the San Juan River through amazing redrock canyons that will blow your mind. You'll sleep on soft sand beaches under star-filled skies, visit the cliff dwellings and rock art sites of a prehistoric Native American civilization, and explore lush, green

Native Community Service

We will spend 4 days with a Native American community of Navajo, Hopi or Zuni to experience their unique way of life, perspective and harmonious living with the natural world. Engage in projects that provide important goods and services for Native American families. Earn at least 20 hours of Community Service learning, and one Cultural credit.

Sweat Lodge Ceremony

The trip culminates in a sweat lodge ceremony to help set the stage for you to reflect on all the amazing experiences you and your fellow adventurers just had.

ESTIMATED COST: $2080/person all inclusive - all meals, lodging, and travel.

DEPOSIT DUE DATES (non-refundable):

October 17th - a 50% deposit by this date will get you a $50 discount!

November 16th - this is the latest date to submit your 50% deposit (no discount).

December 18th - the second 50% is due by this date.

For more information and to register, contact Dr. Barnes (joel.barnes@wasatchacademy.org)